Prosecuting a North Carolina Claim. The Danville (Va.) News, of Tuesday, says that on that day, Col. S. H. Wiley, of Salisbury, and Col. T. B. Keogh, of Greensboro, passed through Danville en route for Washington where they go to prosecute a claim against the government for tax which had been paid on the North Carolina Railroad, and which it is alleged was erroneously assessed, The original assessment was $90,000 which was paid and which the railroad company is now seeking to recover. The State of North Carolina owns a threefourths interest in the road which is untaxable, and it is on this interest the reclamation is sought to be made.

Ayes and Noes, Yeas and Nayes. Now here's something of interest to legislators and others as well. We quote from the Richmond Enquirer:

"'MR. SPEAKER: I call for the ayes and noes,' said a member of the House of Delegates, yesterday. The occupant of the chair announced that the 'veas and navs were called for.' It is not generally known that in parliamentary practice the affirmative and negative vote on any question when the roll is called is designated 'yeas' and nays;' but when there is a 'division' by a rising vote the terms used are 'ayes' and 'noes.' 'Yeas and noes,' or 'ayes and nays,' are never proper expressions."

A Rich Treat at the Blind Asylum. Prof. Hartley, on the invitation of

Mr. Nichols, gave a short entertainment yesterday at the asylum for the deaf, dumb and the blind, which was an hour of enjoyment long to be remembered by all who were present. An idea will be had of Mr. Hartley's abilities when it is told that half of the audience were deaf mutes, and that yet the hall was in one continual uproan At the conclusion of the entertainment a vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Hartley.

Young America's Manias, Young America has a periodical mania Sometimes it is for kites, and they make them of all sizes and shapes; again it is for marbles, and the one who can muster the greatest number of "taws" is the hero of the hour; again it is for hoops, and they run over wagons, drays and full-grown men, driving these hoops through the streets; the greatest nuisance of all was about two years ago, when every boy wanted a "memory button" from you, and every man remembers when he had to walk along the streets holding his pants up with his hands because the buttons had all been cut off for ''mem-'ries." The mania the past season was for birds' eggs, and yesterday afternoon, we saw at Mr. Branson's book-store, three boxes of the eggs of more birds than Noah carried into the ark. The meat had been taken out of them and only the shells remained; they were of all sizes and colors, and the eggs of all birds, from the buzzard to the sparrow. boy whose left eye had been "yanked" out as he descended through the limbs of a tree, and whose right leg was an inch and a half shorter than his left, stood by and pointed out the varieties

Illness of His Excellency the Governor. His Excellency Gov. Vance was taken quite ill vesterday morning about 2 o'clock, suffering intense pain in the back of his neck and down the spinal column. Two or three physicians were summoned at once, and the Governor continued in great pain for some time. The affection was pronounced neuralgic rheumatism, and is supposed to have been superinduced by cold. During yesterday, His Excellency recuperated very rapidly, and during nearly all of the day, and last evening as well, he sat up and received the visits of his friends. Last night he was so far recovered as to indulge the hope that he can be up to-day and resume his executive duties. His illness excited a large amount of solicitude in the community yesterday, and men of all parties felt and expressed sincere gratification upon learning that it was by no means se-

Notwithstanding the excessively inclement character of the evening, a large number of spectators were in attendance, there being at least 600 persons in the church.

Laborers' Contracts.

At the beginning of the year the colored people generally in this section, as we learn, were anxious to make contracts for the ensuing year. In consequence, too, of the stringency of the times, they were willing to contract at lower rates than they have hitherto obtained. A new system of contract has been organized, too, in many instances, at the rate of $6 per month for the first three months, $8 for the next five, and $10 for the remaining four. The most of the contracts made are at the rate of $6 to $8. It seems strange to the man in average circumstances that one should be able to live and support a family at $6 or $8 per month, yet many do it and do not seem to feel the pinchings of want.

And permit me to say this defeat, this death of Radicalism, is in a great measure due to the popular political journal, the Raleigh News.

Give us the railrud from Egypt to Greensboro via Ore Edge, and we will bring this county out and make it as fruitful and productive at the valley of the Nile, and Democratic votal accordingly forever in the future.

There has been an increase of two to one in the surrounding townships, and by the light of your paper, thrown in this dark section, in a few years you can greet us as one of the most enterprising, far-seeing Democratic people this side of Mason and Dixon's line.

Yours truly,

Prospectus of the Raleigh News.

Momentous events are thronging to the front. Two political parties of the country are marshaling their intellectual forces for the constitutional battle, on which hangs the fate of the government or the ensuing four years, perhaps for all the time, From now until the 4th of March the republic will be the theatre of a drama more thrilling in interest than any before et acted in America, to be followed, in all probability, by a period of the profoundest concern to all our people Some predict a terrible clash of arms, but whether or not war results from the turbulent condition of the public mind, it is certain that the year 1877 will see thick crowding occur-

Presidential question is settled. CAN a nest of official thieves, like those at Newbern, exist in a judicial district without the connivance of the Solicitor and the Judge of that District? It is well known that I. E. West. Clerk of the Superior Court of Craven county, has embezzled the public funds, Is there no law in the country? Shall roguery be suffered to go on in broad day light?

JAMES Gordon Bennett has certainly departed for Europe. The story that he married Miss May before leaving is pure fabrication; there is not a word of truth in it. It has been privately ascertained that Fred. May was only slightly wounded. So ends the fiasco.

THE Democratic State officials in South Carolina have formally demanded their offices from the Radical officials, with the purpose of bringing the whole case before the Supreme Court upon quo corranto. A decision in favor of the Democrats is relied upon.

WE present to-day the views of General Thomas In Clingman on the subject of county government. Gen. Clingman was one of the most prominent and influential members of the Constitutional Convention, and this fact together with his long experience in affairs of State, his matured wisdom and distinguised abilitie; entitle all that he says upon this subject to the highest consideration,

MORE RASCALITY.

Some years prior to the war Mr. M. H. Lent, an old citizen of Newbern, died, leaving by his will to the Female Benevolent Society of Newbern one thousand dollars. The amount was invested in a Craven county bond and placed in the office of the clerk of the court in trust for the society. It remained in the clerk's office until the carpet-baggers took possession of the county. The bond was then turned over, with a large amount of other valuables, to I. E. West, a New Jersey carpet-bagger, who had been elected to the

A few days ago an agent of the Female Benevolent Society wanted the bond for the purpose of presenting it for payment, when it was discovered that the bond had been taken out of the office by West and had been pledged by him as collateral security for money which he had borrowed at the National Bank. It was also discovered that three bonds, of one thousand dollars each, of the State of North Carolina, which belonged to a lady who was confined in the Lunatic Asylum, had been used in the same way.

West is the scoundrel who wrote a most infamous, lying article in a New Jersey paper, just previous to the election. abusing in the most outrageous manner the people of North Carolina. He is the clerk who made the return of one dollar as being the amount of fines and enalties collected in five years in Craven. He was one of T. F. Lee's ecurities, as Sheriff of Wake county, swearing that he owned five thousand dollars of unencumbered real estate, when it was well known he did not own one dollar's worth.

Can the members of the Legislature nesitate one moment to relieve Craven county of such infamous officials? They now have the power, and the people ask them to exercise it. With a board of good men as magistrates such men as West could not remain in office, as he can give none other than a straw, bond; under the present system he and others equally as corrupt will be elected by the negro vote of Craven county.

THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE OF MADDRY VS. HOR-TON.

This ease was decided yesterday in the House of Representatives in favor of Mr. Maddry, who was duly sworn in. This action on the part of the House was in accordance with the report of the majority of the committee on Privileges and Elections. There was a long and spirited debate upon the question, followed by many motions of a fillibustering character. The principal question in the case was, whether the Winton box should be thrown out on account of fraud alleged to have been committed in the management of the box at that place. It appears that the polls were kept open till 8} o'clock at night, and during the count of the vote the doors were locked, and spectators excluded, besides many other irregulari-

We do not see how the House could have decided otherwise, and its action will be a rebuke to the loose and illegal manner in which elections are carried on in many Radical counties.

At no time during the session has Speaker Price appeared to better advantage, showing himself as he did amidst all the excitement a perfect master of parliamentary law. In fact, it is conceded on all hands that Mr. Price makes a most efficient presiding officer. The House has rarely, if ever, had his superior in the chair.

Mr. Maddry is a true and unflinching Democrat, and in him the good people of Hertford will have a faithful representative.

THE New York Herald says that unless the evidence obtained by the committees of investigation is strong enough to convince ten or twelve Republican Senators, Mr. Tilden will not be the next President. Mr. Conkling is the only Republican Senator who has thus far given the least indication of an intention to act impartially in this matter. We must confess that at this stage of the game there is little hope that he can influence the action of as many as nine or eleven Republican Senators.

In 1860 the amount of taxes collected for county purposes in Craven county was $11,052.65, From 1868 to 1875, eight years of Radical carpet-bagger rule, there was collected the enormous sum of $247,304.62. The amount paid out of this sum, as far as can be ascertained, on the Railroad debt is $65,000 .-00. Leaving for county purposes $182,- 304.62. Can any Democratic member of the Legislature hesitate one moment to relieve a people who are held under such bondage?

It is proposed at Washington to sul. mit the questions at issue in the Presidential contest to the decision of a tribunal the control of which shall depend upon chance. It is proposed to form a tribunal composed of four Judges of the Supreme Court, who are supposed to be equally divided in opinion, five Senators, to be chosen, of course, by the majority in the Senate, and five Representative, to be chosen by the majority in the House, and from the ten members of Congress one is to be dropped by drawing lots. This proposition meets with little favor from either side. The New York Tribune, speaking for the Repul heans, ridicules it. It SAVS: "If accident is to determine the composition of the board, accident will determine the result of the election. The American people, in that case, have elected nobody. The dice-box, the flying copper, or the drawn straw, shall elect a President for us. If we have come to this, let us get rid of the expensive and demoralizing form of elections altogether. The conventions having nominated, let each then esignite it most skilled gambler, and it the President depend upon a trial of cill or luck between the two. Possibly, is time, we might arrive at the dignity of seeing a President elected by a game of "Old Sledge."

COUNTY GOVERNMENT.

Views of General T. L. Clingman. WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 13, '77.

To the Editor of the News: SIR :- In reply to your request that I would give you my views on the best mode of arranging the county govern-ments in our State, it strikes me that the difficulty in the case does not seem so much to arise from the facts themselves as it does from the variety of pinions which have beeen expressed on the subject.

There are at least three plans which at once present themselves to the mind.

The tirst is to provide forms of government different in themselves for the ment different in themselves for the various counties. To this plan there is one objection of great force. Whatever may be our opinion as to the relative self-government, there is no doubt but that both our own constitution, and that of the United States, place them on an equal footing as to their political rights and privileges. Had our political opponents, when they were in power, in 1868, the State, by providing that in the counties where they constituted the majority they should not enjoy the same right of self-government that was accorded to self-government that was accorded to self-government that was accorded to the negro counties, we should have re-garded such conduct as unjust to us. Should the opposite policy now be adopt-ed it will subject us to criticism and denunciation by those opposed to us in the North. It seems, therefore, to be our true policy to avoid weakening our position in any portion of the Union. The second plan would be to return in this respect to our old system and have the Justices of the Peace all ap-pointed by the Legislature, with authority in them to appoint commissioners and such other county officers as may be needed. The third plan might be for the Legslature to appoint a number of Justices in each county, equal to those now elected and bestow like powers on them jointly. I mentioned this expedient to several members when in Raleigh. Of these two plans the first strikes me as the simpler and better of the two. It most resembles that system with which our people were formerly satis-fied. The chief objection I have heard urged to it seems to be that the people would not be willing to give up the right they now exercise of electing their Justices of the Peace. This I think a mistake. I know no man in Buncombe county, where I reside, that in my opinion would consider his liberpublic spirited enough to be satisfied with what is the best system that car be presented. During my pulli: career, I invariably voted for such measures as I thought right, and after they were explained. I found that they were readily endorsed by the majority of my constituents. Should the Legislature decide to appoint the Justices and not give them a tenure during good behavior of life, then at their first election they should be chosen for terms, say of 4, 6 or 8 years, &c., so that they might not all go ou at once, but rather that a portion of the experienced men should hold over. After the first election they might be all appointed for the longest term. If you think these suggestions, hastily made, would be of any service in the discussion going on among our mem bers, you can use them as you think fit. The subject does not seem to me to be attended, with difficulties of such a nature as to require an extended discussion. Yours very truly,

T. L. CLINGMAN.

TERRIBLE TROTTING ACCIDENT Details of the Collision Between Celebrated Roadsters at Poughkeepsie

[Special to N. Y. Herald.] Росенкеерsie, Jan. 14, 1877. The brief statement by telegraph on Saturday does not half tell of the terrible accident that happened to two trotting horses on South avenue yesterday afternoon. It was an accident that has no parallel as to horrible results. During the entire sleighing this winter South avenue, from the Soldier's fourtain to a point a mile beyond, has been the accepted trotting ground of the city. and every tine atternoon hundreds or people would assemble there to witness the terrific trials of speed. The well-known speeders Silas Rich, Joe Pettit, Pondietta, Alida and the numerous horses composing the private stock of the city went there daily for rattling contests. The course was sometimes crowded so thickly with trotting horses that narrow escapes from collision were numerous daily, and the accident that occurred yesterday has been predicted for weeks.

DETAILS OF THE ACCIDENT. The day's sport was nearly over, and forty or fifty trotters were making their last "spurts" at about five P. M. Bot r sides of the avenue were lined with people watching the sport, when suddenly the cry of 'There they come!' was heard, and looking up the avenue the trotting horse Silas Rich, driven by Mr. Cunningham; a fast trotter, driven by Leason Holdridge, a c.ockery merchant of this city, and a third trotter, driven by Richard Titus, were seen coming down neck and neck at terrific speed. each striving for the supremacy. They cleared the level along Eastman Park like a whirlwind and with safety; but as they attempted to thrn the slight curve opposite the late Judge Davis' place they met another trotter coming along at a rattling gait and driven by Charles Phelps, his owner. A TERRIFIC COLLISION was imminent between the Phelps and Holdridge horses, and seeing that it could not be avoided the by-standers turned their heads from the sight with a thrill of horror. The "come together" was awful. As quick as lightening the end of the thill on Mr. Holdridge s sleigh entered the breast of Mr. Phelps' horse to the depth of ten inches, and the poor animal died without a groan, for it had pierced his heart. At the ame time the end of the thill on Mr. Phelps' sleigh penetrated the ilank and breast of Mr. Holdridge's horse, and that animal died in two, minute:. By the force of the collision Mr. Holdridge was knocked out of his sleigh on his herse. Mr. Holdridge's animal was valued at $1,500, and Mr. Phelps' horse, formerly known as the West horse, at $1,000. That ended the trotting for the day on that avenue, and no doubt for the

----FLORIDA'S VOT S.

I vidence that Prainty Shows How Votes were Counted for Haves. [Special to N. Y. Sun.]

Washington, Jan. 15.—Mr. Cooper, of Tennessee, the Democratic member of the Senate committee that went to Florida, reports that no evidence was obtained by that committee that will detract from the strength of the case in favor of Tilden, but that the evidence taken may confuse some persons. A curious case of conflicting testimony is that relating to the celebrated Archer Precinct No. 2, in Alachua county. The inspectors returned 535 votes from that precinct. They reported that 399 votes were cast for Hayes and 136 for Tilden. The House Committee proved that 219 of the votes counted for Hayes were fraudulent; that no such votes were cast; that the persons who were asserted to have cast them did not exist, and that the true vote was 180 for Hayes and 136 for Tilden. The Senate committee took evidence which Sargent and Teller say shows that the total vote cast was 314, but that it was nearly all Republican. They thus accuse the Republican inspectors of having falsely reported the vote for Tilden in excess of the real vote for him, and do not deny that 216 fraudulent votes were east The absurdity of this latter result is manifest. The House Committee has not got its evidence in print, and will not be able to hold a meeting this week. The majority report will be a long and very clear document.

The Purpose of the People.

[St. Louis Times.]. If their opponents attempt a usurpa tion of power and a forcible inauguration of a fraudulent President, on their heads be the calamitous consequences of that immeasurable outrage. What-ever the immediate results might be, the conservative sentiment of the country would have no fear of the outcome.

These declarations are made in the full knowledge of the fact that the conspirators against the liberties of the country, with the present iniquitous administration at their head, are preparing to call in the aid of force to secure the results of fraud. Their preparations are made openly and notoriously. The city of Washington is being garrisoned for this purpose. The arsenals in Democratic districts are being stripped of their arms and munitions of war, in or-der that the adherents of the administration may be armed and equipped for this purpose. Secret organizations are leing formed all over the country, so that an army may suddenly spring into existence for this purpose. These pre-parations cannot frighten the conservative people, nor turn them from their purpose. They might delay the end, but would be powerless to prevent it. The people are far mightier than the men who happen to be in power, and forts, arsenals, armies and navies, would be speedily swept away before the wave of popular indignation. The people have told the conspirators where they must stop, and it will be well for them and the country if they along the grountry. the country if they obey the warning voice. It is the purpose of the respice to "ask nothing but that which is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong."

LOUISIANA REGISTRATION.

THE PROPERTY

Twenty-Five Thousand Negroe Fraudulently Registered in the State, [Special to N. Y. Sun.] NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15 .- Mr Morrison's sub-committee spent five hours of their morning's session in examining Major Burke, Democratic Chairman of the Registration Commission, on the recent registration. Major Burke gave a concise and detailed statement of the enormous fraud practised by the Republican Commissioner of Registration. He testified that he knew of 25,000 fraudulently registered negroes in the State, and knew the names and num-bers of 9,000 in Orleans parish. Major Burke started for Washington this evening.

Gov. Kellogg next appeared on the stand. The most interesting portion of his testimony was concerning his fraudulent census. He said that the vote division was not made in this census, but by the election registers in 1872 and 1874. As a large part of the negro reg-1874. As a large part of the negro registration was proven fraudulent by the Republicans themselves in 1874, it shows what foundation Sherman has for his census report of the Republican majority in Louisiana. Mr. Morrison asked Kellogg if that kind of a census was reliable; what he thought of the 23,000 negro registration in this city this year. The political sharper was floored by this question. After much testimony con-cerning bribed legislators, fraudulent bonds, &c., his ex-Excellency retired.

National Democratic Convention in Washington not Probable -- The Interposition of the Supreme Court Inevitable-The Senate--W. E. Chandier in Contempt-The Executive Committee of the W. U. Telegraph Company Summoned By Both Houses -- Barnes Gone to New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Jan. 17 .- Indications are that the meeting of the National Democratic Committee to-morrow night will not favor any unusua demonstration on the part of the De mocracy in Washington, pending the count of the electoral vote by Congress. The proposition that the functions of the President protem of the Sonate have scope beyond the opening of the returns of which he is thecustodian, and hand-ing them to the official tellers, may be regarded as abandoned. Special correspondents to Nothern papers adhere to the assertion that the participation of the Supreme Court is an inevitable element of any possible compromise between the House and the Senate. The Senate during the morning hour passed a large number of bills of a private nature.

The joint committee on counting the electoral vote had a meeting and meets again this afternoon. The prospect of an agreement is not so good this

William E. Chandler will be reported in contempt by the committee on the privileges and duties of the House. He refuses to answer whether the dispatches received at Tallahassee had any reference to troops and money, until permit ted by Gov. Stearns, who was his client. He claims to have acted as legal adviser and that his knowledge is privileged. The same committee have sub naed the executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Sergeants-at-Arms Released -- Packard to Augur.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 17 .- The six sergeants-at-arms of the Republican Senate were released on bail, Governor Packard in answering Gen. Augur's request to allow matters to remain in statu quo, says:

"I feel that the request would have been more appropriate if made immediately after my installation as Governor and before any of the main branches of government had been forcibly taken possession of by the opposition." He concludes: "I will give the pledge requested that no effort will be made on art of the lawful State government to forcibly disturb the existing state of affairs without further communication with you.'
